

Sale Name: August 2025 Estate Firearm Online Auction

LOT 60 - Mowry 1864 .58 Cal. Percussion Rifle - Musket

Description

- James D. Mowry .58 Percussion Musket
- 40" Round Barrel, Fixed Front Sight, Double Leaf V-Notched Rear Sight,
- 39.75" Threaded Ramrod
- Wood Stock With Three Metal Bands (Two Marked "U"), Metal "US" Butt Plate
- Stamped On The Right Side Plate: "1864", "U.S. - JAs D. MOWRY - NORWICH. CONN." And Eagle
- On Barrel To The Left Of The Hammer Inspector Marks "V", "P" And Another Marking Is Present
- This Was The Primary Musket At The Start Of The Civil War For Union Soldiers And Is Considered, "Everyman's" Rifle.
- This Musket Used A Hollow Based Conical Projectile To Produce A Good Gas Seal
- The Stock Has Numerous Nicks, Scratches, And Especially Deeper Gouges On The Underside Of The Stock And Near The Upper Portion Of the Musket
- Metal Has Signs Rust And Light Pitting, Yet Has Nice Gray Coloration
- 22,000 Manufactured Between 1861;1863-1864
- NSN

Quantity: 1

<https://www.langhamauctioneers.com/>